Dear Garrison,

Excuse me, but there is another question or two on which I want light.

1. Did you issue two prospectuses for the Liberator - one proposing to establish it in Washington, the other in Boston? I find no prospectus in the Liberator (first volume); but a paragraph saying you did not think it worth while to reproduce it. At a later date (same volume) you give a brief extract from it. Can you now furnish me with a copy.

2. I want to know just what your plans were, as formed while in prison; why you did not resume your editorship of the Genius instead of starting a new paper?

In great haste,

Yours, truly,

J. Cross Johnson.
